DECEMBER 2006

Message from Chief Instructor

Well following another great Winter Course, that's it for the official courses in the EKW calendar for 2006. Watch out for email circulars with dates for the Sunday Morning Dan Grade training.

Thanks to everyone who helped with the organisation behind the scenes and with the instruction on the day and thanks for Carlisle for hosting us.

The standards demonstrated during the training were most impressive as well as in both the kata and kumite competitions.

For those of you who I won't see again this year, have a great Christmas and New Year and keep on training and I hope to see you on the courses planned for early next year, starting with the Tanto-Dori course in January.

Regards,

Renshi Dave Swalwell
